French Wednesday at Doon

French Wednesday at Doon is the night to be out and celebrating all things French. With music, dancing and a French magician, there is no better way to have a mid week party than French Wednesday at Doon.

Taking place in a different venue every two weeks, French Wednesday at Doon this week is a chance to meet and greet other Francophiles, have a few drinks and generally party, in a very chic and sophisticated way.

Given that the French are renowned for their good taste, you can be guaranteed a classy night out at Doon. Vertigo the magic maker will be on hand to entertain you with his glamorous tricks from 7pm, and from 9pm onwards you can hit the dance floor for some truly stylish dancing and socialising.

The party ends at 11pm, leaving you with plenty of time to get home and get your beauty sleep before another hard day at the office on Thursday. And if you want to stay out all night, then there will be plenty of new friends that are happy to carry on the party with you, naturellement.

If you would like to book tickets for the party at French Wednesday at Doon, email here for more information.
